SEGEL & BRADY'S

Clearance Sale Values for Saturday that Mean a Real Saving to Your Pocket-book

And to us a clearance sale of the stock on hand in the Big Store. To what extent this great business shall continue to grow depends upon the quality of the values given. Just look in our Clothing window and see the values we offer in men's fine Suits and extra fine Suits for young men. Perhaps you have not heretofore been aware of the

GREAT SALE OF $12.00, $13.00 MEN'S SUITS
AND $15.00
That Go at $9.95

while they last. These garments are all strictly tailor-made and union-made, in the most fashionable patterns, the latest cuts, and guaranteed to fit better than most tailor makes that cost much more money. You will find sizes in this lot from 34 to 50, chest measure, which means that we can fit the fat and slim, the short and tall. If we cannot fit you we will pay for the ice cream. Come in, any way. If we can't fit you out, we'll pay the soda. First come, first served.

Cool Underwear, Outing Shirts, Hosiery and Trousers at Zero Prices.

WILLIAMSTOWN.

Married, in Berlin, at the home of the bride's father, Ira Gray, July 21, by Rev. F. E. Currier, Fred A. Blanchard and Vina E. Gray.

The Bagpipes. A man was arraigned in a London court for creating a nuisance by playing a bagpipe. The court ruled that the bagpipe is a musical instrument, and he went scot free. Whether or not the decision is a musical one is a question.

Morocco Prisons. The prisons of Morocco are the worst in the world. No care or attention whatever is given to the prisoners. They are left dependent on their friends for food, and if they have no friends the government provides only a bit of bread or a handful of grain daily to keep them alive.

Glued Clothing. The Koreans do not sew their clothes, but use fish glue instead of thread.

A Nerve Skeleton. One of the most interesting possessions of the museum at the Hahnemann Medical college in Philadelphia is a complete nerve skeleton made by Dr. Rufus B. Weaver, the famous neurologist. It is the only specimen of the kind in the world.

Black Dye. A good black dye may be made as follows: To five pints of water add half a pound of bruised gail, a quarter of a pound of green vitriol and one pound of logwood.

The Scorpion. The most quarrelsome creature in the world is the scorpion. Two placed in the same box will always sting each other to death.
